

1900 - Page 64

1901 - Page 78

value of the club property being $1,500. Amateur record: Men, 42, by Tom West; women, 56, Miss Ada N. Smith. President, Captain W. R. Maize; vice-president, Charles P. Douglass; secretary and treasurer, Robert C. Vroom, 1108 Laurel street, San Diego. Board of directors: Heber Ingle, Sr., Thomas K. Baker, Charles P. Douglass, Dr. Walker B. Woodward, John S. Akerman and Charles A. Emery.

NORMAL SCHOOL.—Links are reported to have been laid out in connection with this institution, but no reliable data is at hand.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO GOLF CLUB.—Accessible by Sacramento street car line. Post office address, Second avenue and Presidio Reservation. Organized, 1896. Entrance fee, $50. Annual dues, $25. Membership, 250. Visitors pay 50 cents a day, or $1.50 per week. The original nine-hole course was laid out by William Robertson in November, 1895, but it has since been improved and altered. The clubhouse is valued at $8,500. The links are open the whole year. Amateur record, 40; professional record, 34, by David Stephenson. Secretary and treasurer, S. L. Abbot, Jr., 222 Montgomery street, San Francisco; captain, E. J. McCutcheon. Governing committee: E. J. McCutcheon, Harry Babcock, P. McG. McBean, C. R. Winslow and S. L. Abbot, Jr. Greenkeeper, David Stephenson.

SAN JOSE.

LINDA VISTA GOLF CLUB.—At San José, Santa Clara County, four miles from Southern Pacific Railroad depot, and accessible by steam cars. Post office address, San José, Cal. Organized October 20, 1899. Entrance fee: Men, $10; women, $5. Annual dues: Men, $10; women, $5. The nine-hole course was laid out by Mr. Melville, of the Del Monte Golf Links, in November, 1899, the distances being: 1, 239; 2, 281; 3, 186; 4, 331; 5, 206; 6, 227; 7, 333; 8, 311; 9, 379. President, George M. Bowman; secretary and treasurer, E. C. Flagg, 11 South First street, San José; chairman of house committee, George M. Bowman, care First National Bank, San José.

SAN MATEO.

SAN MATEO HUNT CLUB.—This club has also a golf course, but details have not been received. The directors are: John Parrott, J. J. Moore, Walter S. Hobart, Hugh Hume, Frank J. Carolan, W. O'B. McDonough, E. D. Belyard, J. H. P. Howard and Duncan Hayne. It was reorganized last summer.

$15; women, $10. Annual dues, $12. Membership, 114. A nine-hole course covered with a sort of dry moss, with clay greens treated with crude oil. The distances and bogey figures are: 1. 270, 4; 2. 315, 5; 3. 168, 3; 4. 260, 4; 5. 342, 5; 6. 341, 5; 7. 289, 4; 8. 187, 3; 9. 310, 5. President, Captain W. R. Maize; Vice-President, Charles P. Douglass; Secretary and Treasurer, Robert C. Vroom, 1108 Laurel Street; Chairman of House Committee, Dr. W. B. Woodward, corner Fifth and Laurel streets. Directors, Charles P. Douglass, W. B. Woodward, John S. Akerman, Charles A. Emery, Alexander Reynolds, and Dr. Thomas G. McConkey.

SAN FRANCISCO

LAKE GOLF CLUB.

MENLO PARK GOLF CLUB.

SAN FRANCISCO GOLF CLUB.—On Presidio Reservation, with street cars running to the course. Post-office address, First Avenue and Presidio Gate, San Francisco, California. Organized, 1895. Entrance fee: Men, $50; women, $25. Membership, 250. A nine-hole course, laid out over rolling country, having grass putting-greens. The distances are: 1. 370; 2. 330; 3. 340; 4. 250; 5. 248; 6. 217; 7. 262; 8. 250; 9. 415. Secretary and Treasurer, Andrew Carrigan, 17 Beale Street, San Francisco; Chairman of House Committee, Charles Page, Mills Building, San Francisco; Captain, H. B. Goodwin. Governing Committee, Andrew Carrigan, Charles Page, J. W. Byrne, and H. D. Pillsbury. Greenkeeper, J. F. Guthrie.

SAN JOSE

LINDA VISTA GOLF CLUB.—Three and a half miles from Southern Pacific Railroad station, and accessible by steam motor line. Post-office address, San Jose, California. Organized, October 20, 1899. Entrance fee: Men, $10; women, $5. Annual dues: Men, $10; women, $5. Open all the year. Membership, 90. A nine-hole course, with hard rolled sand greens. Distances and bogey figures: 1. 281, 4; 2. 186, 3; 3. 331, 4; 4. 206, 3; 5. 227, 3; 6. 333, 4; 7. 311, 4; 8. 379, 4; 9. 239, 3. President, George M. Bowman; Secretary and Treasurer, E. C. Flagg, 11 South First Street, San Jose; Chairman of House Committee, George M. Bowman, care First National Bank of San Jose. Governing Committee, President, Secretary, and A. C. Kuhn, R. W. Hersey, and George G. Vachell. Greenkeeper, William J. Bradley.

SAN MATEO

SAN MATEO HUNT CLUB.—This club has also a golf course, but details have not been received. The Directors are: John Parrott, J. J. Moore, Walter S. Hobart, Hugh Hume, Frank J. Carolan, W. O'B. McDonough, E. D. Belyard, J. H. P. Howard, and Duncan Hayne. It was reorganized in 1899.

SANTA MONICA

SANTA MONICA GOLF CLUB.—One-half mile from Southern Pacific Railroad station, with trolley passing grounds. Organized, January 1, 1898. Entrance fee, $25. Annual dues, $24. Membership, 40. Open all the year. A nine-hole course, with oiled sand greens. President, W. G. Burmester; Secretary, Roy Jones, Santa Monica; Captain, W. H. Young; Treasurer, Bank of Santa Monica. Greenkeeper, W. H. Vernon.